

The Lloyds TSB Journey

Describing the evolution of PAT within LTSB from a reporting application in a single business unit to a Group wide governance and planning system and then its extension into Group IT. As the application has extended in scope , additional, un-related, application areas have been added (such as Capability Management and Portfolio Planning) as the bank has realised the potential reach of the project and the advantages of leveraging existing data and functionality.

